

Clean Fuels

Political Action Committee

The Clean Fuels Alliance America Political Action Committee (Clean Fuels PAC) is a political action committee organized to support candidates around the country who share the ideals of creating a sustainable biodiesel/renewable diesel industry.

Thank you for your willingness to make a contribution to Clean Fuels PAC. We are required to report certain information to the Federal Election Commission and so request that you complete the information below. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact David Cobb at dcobb@cleanfuels.org.

Clean Fuels PAC accepts federal contributions from individuals, partnerships and other federal committees (committees registered with Federal Election Commission, such as political action committees) of up to $5,000 per calendar year.

Federal law requires our best efforts to obtain name, mailing address, employer and occupation of individuals who contribute over $200 in an election cycle. Contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Corporate contributions are prohibited.
